Norwegian Spiced

Holland Herring, per keg	$1.3
Smoked Salmon, per pound	40
Cross & Blackwell's fresh Macke	rel, cans25
Deviled Crabs, per can Ferndell Crab Meat, per can
Soft Shell Crabs, per can	35
Ferndell Lobster, per can	30c and 45
Dunbar's Shrimp, per can	15c and 25
Minced Clams, per can

Ferndell Olive and Vegetable Relish

A delicious relish for Meats, Sandwiches, etc., Olive Relish 30c Vegetable Relish, bottle . 35c

Fine Home Made Cakes

Fig Layer, Chocolate, Caramel, Nut and Chocolate Caramel. We cannot recommend these cakes too highly; each$1.00

50-pound Box Choice Apples $2.00 50-pound Box Fancy Apples.....$2.50

Phone 151.

210-212 Texas St.

Auto 1151.

BREAKS THE BEST RECORD IN FLIGHT

(Continued From Page One.)

Sense of distance almost lost from the earth. No one would have been surprised if the man and his little wings had been swallowed up in the void. Greets Wife in Air.

At 5 oclock the machine becam plainer. Paulhan began to descend. He came down easily in front of the grandstand after being in the air near- ! ly 51 minutes. As he leaped from his colder. Friday fair. machine, cheeks glowing and eyes flashing, he was grabbed by his friends Friday fair. and was carried to the grandstand, West Texas: Tonight fair; colder, where he bared his head amid the thun- Friday fair; colder in southeastern Paulhan gave the crowds another treat earlier in the afternoon. A baloon, which had ascended from Huntington Park, came drifting toward hours has occurred in the vicinity of Aviation camp. In it was Mme. Paulsnapped out instructions to his help-ers and in a flash darted off. At that The depression moment Beachey and Knabenshue, in Texas Panhandle has moved to the their dirigibles, had passed over the middle Mississippi valley,

SPECIAL SALE ON OUR 25 Cents a Pound MINT CHEWS

15 Cents a Pound SATURDAY ONLY

C. S. PICKRELL, Mgt.

WAIT

For Lightbody's

> Clean Sale

IT BEGINS

Saturday, Jan.15

grandstand and also started toward the New York. But Paulhan, rising in wide circle to a height of 600 feet, salled a mile or more over the ad-jacent fields and the fringe of trees that fined the camp on the north un-til he had approached close enough to gaily hall his wife in the balloon, and "Why, Jock, you're a real Amerigaily hall his wife in the balloon, and then, sweeping down, paid his respects to Beachey and Knabenshue.

The crowd surged for a mile to the

THE WEATHER.

New Mexico: Tonight fair: colder.

Weather Conditions.

portion.

Light precipitation in the last 24 han among other guests, and when the moderate to heavy amounts are report-Frenchman caught sight of it, he ed from Central Texas to the lake resprang to his Farnam machine, glon, with 1.46 inches at St. Louis and The depression

A crest of unusually high pressure is over Wyoming; the temperature there is 16 degrees below zero. In central and northern Texas, Oklahoma, southern Kausas, southern Colorado, and northern New Mexico it is 14 to 24 degrees colder than yesterday

Rises of 10 or more degrees are noted Arizona and east gulf districts. Temperature and Rain

	A STATE OF THE STA	-	7
	(Observations taken at	6 a. m.	Pro
	Abliene	76	33
	Amarillo26	52	:6
	Buffalo	34	.0
	Chicago32	34	.5
	Cincinnati34	40	.5
	Del Rio60	70	.0
	Denver	44	.0
	Detroit26	34	.0
	El Paso44	62	.0
	Flagstaff	32	.0
	Galveston58	62	0
Ų	Kansas City30	44	.6
	Los Angeles46	64	.0
	New Orleans	64	-0
	New York28	34	0
i	Oklahoma28	54	.0
	Phoenix40	64	0
ß	Roswell34	-58	.0
	St. Louis	46	1.4
	Salt Lake	26	.0
	San Francisco42	50	0
	Santa Fe20	42	0
	Washington34	40	1 1
H	Yuma46	64	_0
Ġ	N. D. Lane, Observer, U	. S. W.	B

Well.

The true way is to find out what is hest to eat and drink, and then cultivate a taste for those things finstead of a taste for those things has a compoleoning ourselves with improper, indigestible food, etc.

A conservative Mass, woman writes:
"I have use. Grape Nuts 5 years for the young and for the aged; in sickness and in health; at first following directions carefully, later in a variety of ways as my taste and judgment sug-

"But its most special, personal hene fit has been as a substitute for meat, and served dry with cream when rheumatic troubles made it important for me to change diet.

"Served in this way with the addi-tion of a cup of hot Postum and a little fruit it has been used at my morning meal for six months, during which time my health has much improved, nerves have grown steadler, and a gradual decrease in my excessive weight adds greatly to my comfort." Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in

"There's a Reason." Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human which the coast guard steam-ship had just left at Suragao, Philippine Islands, when, through the large open-

Some days later the teacher said:-

Did he want to go- Why, his whole "master," and, true to his Filipino nature, his likes were as enduring as suming him. Oh, for some human presbis dislikes. The next few days were spent in preparation and, to the intense amusement of Mr. Robert, in sincere ness, and with an agenized cry of mitation of himself, even the carefully parted hair upon which the boy spent all his spare time endeavoring to conquer its obstinacy, incessant applica-tions of water assisting the plastering down process. . The achievement of this feat in hairdressing, so Jock, as the "master" had nicknamed him, firmly believed, would be his passport to the road which led to "U. S." as he always called that wonderful country which had sent Mr. Robert to him.

When the day arrived for the start, "Jock" was missing, much to the schoolmaster's disappointment, as he had grown fond of the boy, but at the last moment through the date palms and the magnificent fire trees, came the lad, staggering under the weight of a auge, mysterious box. He approached he house with all the dignity possible the situation, deposited his burden silently and dramatically, then turned to the "master" for the approbation for which his soul yearned. There on the floor was "Jock's" masterpiece. visible expression of all his hopes and ambitions to be American, like his teacher, a trunk, ludicrous enough to the uncomprehending in its rude construction, but a faithful copy of the "Master's," so far as was possible to make it so. On one end were the identical letters that were on Mr. Robert's, but the "U. S." were larger than all the can with a traveling trunk! Let me see if it's properly packed," and open-ing the lid Mr. Robert found what he had expected, a mass of tropical vegetation cunningly concealed by the few poor clothes Jack possessed. The "master's " trunk was full; Jock's must be rest. Did they not represent that great goal toward which the little "much-

"I tell you, boy, you'll make a capi-El Paso and vicinity; Tonight fair; all American. You've learned the great from that source. He tried to think, national game of bluff." The "muchache" did not quite understand, but the teacher's voice and smile were approving and his little

The journey to Ginatuan was acco plished and a year sped by, in which Jock continued his system of imitation and responded in a remarkashle manner to the instruction of Mr. Robert. With his better knowledge of English he learned of the customs and traditions of the States, and away down in his heart was the hope that Mr. Robert would take him to "U. S." when he returned, but the seeming audacity of the expectation scared him so that he kept it pretty well buried. What would the great American" want of him, a little ignorant Filipino? But his heart was heavy at the very thought of that re-If he might only do something for the "master," some great big thing, so that the "master" would always want him? But what could he do, just the little muchacho? To be sure he had watched over him night and day that no harm might come, but that seemed only simple duty, and his great love burned for some great expression.

A shout disturbed his revery. "A from U. S." and the master's voice trembled with emotion and tea's rolled down his cheeks, great strong ,nan that he was. The home folks had remem-bered him in his voluntary exile. "We'el have a regular U. S. Christmas, Jock, to begin, his great, black eyes looking but not one peek until the right time." It was the week before Yuletide and Mr. Robert had accepted an invitation then opened his eyes. How dry bis to spend a few days with his only compatriot within a hundred miles' radius, while making the inspection of the his districts. Before starting on his He would get it and afterward-rest journey of 25 miles, he told Jock that from this torment. He sat up. "Kataon Christmas morning he might re-move the top boards from the box so ed out his arms to the beautiful that no time would be lost enjoying its angel whose face. Illumined by the then bade him goodbye and set out.

box, tracing on his map the cities throough which it had passed and every moment his respect for it in-creased until he viewed it with rever-killed her. He would put an end to What wonderful things there it all, and with a despairing cry that must be in it! Had they not come from almost caused Jock's heart to stop beat-

Those letters, "U. S.," had always aroused great expectations and so far benumbed senses and he saw for the they had never disappointed him.

the box open, exposing to view some pretty colored paper, but Jock was him, the healing wings of the tinseled faithful to his trust-he looked no fur- ungel stirred his sick soul with memther, but prepared for the "master's" He had not been away from him before, and his whole being was alive to greet him and see the cheery smlle make him strong. that always warmed him. The "masno, there he was in the distance. He was coming, coming! At last he was sisted upon my sending the Christmas Jock was almost suffocated by angel because they said it looked so his joyous feelings. Then the light in his eye died out and his little frame fancy. shivered and shrank as the "master" thrust him aside and entered without word. The tropical world faded away. Jock seemed to be part of that great frozen belt he had studied about; utter mas gift-come and claim it when you desolation encompassed him. How had choose. offended Mr. Robert? Perhaps he thought he had looked in the box. He height, drew in a deep breath of God's would tell him and he would be loved good air, then turned to his little mu-He turned to speak, but the expression of his "master's" face paralyzed his tongue. Some awful change had taken place; it seemed as if some to U. S. and I'm going to take you sponge of fate had wiped away all with me." likeness to his friend. Had the little Could human heart bear this exces-Filipino possessed any knowledge of the spiritual experiences of life, he it! Jock's bounded and bumped and would have known that elements in pounded. In this great moment of hi

THE newly arrived American teacher, was eagerly sorting his mall, of human things was crowded out. While Jock's heart was breaking, with clenched fists and tense muscles, the "master" strode back and forth in lings in his room, peculiar to tropical the minster strode back and forth in buildings, he saw a crowd of native men and boys in front of his dwelling. Hurrying to discover the cause of the visit this extremity of combat with that rying to discover the cause of the visit he was amazed to find himself the prospective owner of a hundred or more beys, whom the Filipino fathers were eagerly offering to him to be his "muchacho," or boy of all work. He selected one undersized lad of 12, whose lad only to be cast back by the first tempwistful expression, born of many un-fulfilled wishes to escape the cruel treatment he had received, appealed to How he longed to feel the magic stuff his sympathetic nature, and, dismissing coursing through his veins! He had the disappointed candidates, he returned denied hiself so long! His muscles reo his letters.

The little "muchacho" seated himself slight breeze fluttered the stars and on the floor and directed an intent and penetrating gaze upon the handsome blond young man, who was too absorbed to notice him, and as he looked some dormant trait inherited from some ancestral hidalgo awoke, and an ambition to be like the American fired his had promised to marry him if he would conquer this awful appetite. She had given him a year to try and it was "Youngster, we are ordered to Gina-tuan, miles and miles away. Do you until the nails dug into his garantee. almost over. He clenched his fists again would crush this unrelenting octopus of temptation that was crowding him into being was suffused with love for the perdition. But this thirst! He tore at his shirt front; this thirst was conimself," he threw himself upon th cot, worn out by the struggle which had been rending him for days. To the terrified and motionless child, the "master's" cry gave new life.

was electrified. He, Jock, just the little muchacho, was to save the loved one from something, he knew not what; no matter, he would save him, and the glory of his mission transfigured him. The "padre" had told him to pray to the Blessed Virgin when he was in trouble, and she would help him, but Mr. Robert had never done so; that had been the one bitter drop in Jock's cup of happiness, and in his childish reasonthen started. Why had it not occurred to him at once—"U. S." of course. Help always came from "U. S.," the teacher himself, the letters that always cheered the "master," the medicine that cured box from "U. S." to save the "master." Noiselessly creeping to the cot, he pretty paper, then down on his knees loving adoration. "U. S." had not failed him. An angel-it must be one the Christmas angels Mr. Robert told him about-a great big, beautiful, shiny angel, with a lovely, kind face. coked up at him. The Blessed Virgin would forgive him for touching the sacred image when it was to save the read. He lifted it reverently, then great light illumined his soul as he saw what was under It-a tree with pretty gilstening balls and all kinds of beautiful things. It was the gift tree. He knew all about it. Mr. Robert had read it to him. He would fix it and put the angel on it and she would give "master" something to save him. He cut down the branches of the artificial tree, stealthily watching the Christmas box, Jock, a Christmas box sleeper for any sign of waking, then placed it on a wide bench at the foot of the cot, with the big angel protectingly topping it, lighted the candles and, with infinite faith in its power to ald, waited for the work of salvation almost supernatural. The "master" stirred uneasily, turned, mouth, how parched his throat! If he only had something to slake his thirst. Why, he had! John had given him I. contents immediately upon his return, light of a candle directly below, stood For hours at a time Jock studied that ness behind it. Thank God! she had come to save him! Then a new horror gripped his very vitals. It was a vis-Kathleen was dead and he had ing, he sprang from his cot. The quick action awoke his partially first time all of Jock's labor of love. The dawn of Christmas morning found For a moment he stared helplessly at then a great peace descended upon ories of home and loved ones praying How he longed for his coming! for his redemption. He was not alone in his hour of need. They were helpiuz him to conquer and their faith would

He tenderly patted each little ornawas late. Perhaps something was ment, then opened a letter which had He trembled with fear; but, been fied to the topmost branch. "Dear Bobs," it read, "the girls 'n-much like me and I humored their "Do you know that your period of probation is almost over? If this Christmas day finds you faithful to your pledge I give you myself for a Christ-

"Bobs" stretched himself to his full chacho the sunny, cheery face of the "master." "Jock! Jock! I'm going home, home

Calisher's Bargain Basement

Friday Remnant Day

Nothing connected with our present White Sale is of as much interest as Remnant Day, tomorrow. The immense selling of White Piece Goods-despite the immense daily selling of remnants-has caused an accumulation that will give customers tomorrow an opportunity to purchase remnants of every kind at prices phenomenally low. Among the accumulation are

Longcloth Nainsook India Linon Persian Lawn Tussorine Lawn Dress Linens Waist Linens Suiting Linens Underwear Muslins Embroideries

Table Damask Shirting Madras White Swiss White Waistings Dress Dimities

The above list gives you an idea of what remnants you will have to select from but to fully appreciate the immense saving you will be able to make you must come tomorrow and see for yourself. Spring sewing is at hand, and remnants will come in handy.

White Sale Remnant White Stille

NOT A CUPID'S SLIDE, IT'S

ONLY FOR CEMENT WORK.

No, it is not a cuoid's slide that the contractors are building on the South-western railroad line between El Paso and Santa Fe streets. It is only a tower for dumping concrete for the new Kra-kauer warehouse buildings. From Ore-gon street it looks like Julius Krakauer might be starting an opposition amuse-ment park to Frank Rich, for the tower and slide is there in its entirety. But instead of being a pleasure slide, it is for the purpose of raising concrete and shunting it to the different parts of gelus cafe today at noon. Speeches were made by different members of the chamber and a musical program given by an orchestra. These luncheons will be held each Thursday during the re-mainder of the winter.

the new warehouse construction.

life, the power of speech deserted nim. He turned and saluted the stars and stripes. He was going to "U. S." Copyright, 1909, by the New York Evening Telegram (New York Heral: Company). All rights reserved.

County Judge Eylar Says He Is Pleased With New Construction.

"The old Ft. Bliss road that the com- | vented? completion last Tuesday," asid Judge Eylar, "shows the effect of the experi- It is also a certain cure for croup and In the recent burglary of W. H. Conence the men have cained nutting down has never been known to fall. there must be semething in the asphalt macadam roads for the past by all druggists. year. It is a smooth job. The com-missionerss' court has never changed from its original idea in expending Softly to the box he went, lifted the quarter of a million dollars voted for road bonds, which has been to build with it an asphalt macadam road throughout the entire length of the irrigated valley, from Anthony on the west to Fabens on the east. The comwest to Fabens on the east. missioners have set aside $22,500 to be expends in the city connecting the city paved streets with the main county

"The work the city and the county has been doing has stimulated the de-sire for good roads, and from every quarter requests are coming to the com court for more roads, and while the commissioners would be delighted to grant them all, yet if half the demands for cross reads, paved streets, etc., had been com-lied with, the bond money would have disappeared long ago. As it now stands, however, this summer will see 50 miles of firstclass roadway running up and down the valley, and the question of cross roads and other side issues of street and roud improvement, can be hand ed from year to year out of the road and bridge fund."

HERALD WANT AD AGENCIES ARE HANDY

Want Ads Received and Papers on Sale at These

Prominent Locations. Heraid want ads may be left at any of these branch offices throughout the city. The cost for this service is the same as at The Herald office. Heralds sale at each of these agencies.
Angelus Hotel news stand.

J. A. Robertson, Gruggist, 407 North regon street. Carr Drug Co., 109 South El Paso P. H. Curran Book Store, 215 San An-

Gammel Pub. Co., 420 San Antonio street.
Fred Harvey news stand, Union de-Luckett Cigar Store, corner St. Louis and Mesa avenue. Robertson's Drug Store, 108 South Stanton street. sheldon hotel cigar : Lind. St. Regis hotel cigar store

Schafer's drug store, 115 San Antonio street. Trust Building elgar store. Ward's Drug Store, 109 San Anwood's confectionery, 105 North Ore-

Boulevard Drug Store, corner Boule vard and Fl rence street.

Grayson Drug Co., corner Campbell street and Boulevard.

Highland Drug Store, Highland Park.

Octavia Drug Store, corner Octavia and Boulevard streets. Anayas Grocery Co., 419 South Vir-East El Paso Drug Store, 2911 Als-

Park Confectionery Co., Washington Mexico Sales Co., 524 Comercia St. C. Juarez, Mexico.

Globe Flour, best by test, and the payroli in El Paso.

GROCERYMEN ARE IN POLICE CUSTODY

Some Packages of Coffee in Their Stores the Cause of It.

This morning detectives arrested Sam Ilitzky, who conducts a grocery Isldore llitzky, who runs a similar store at 618 South El Paso street; J. Hitzky. a brother, and Antonio Marquez, docket-

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCH. ing them as suspicious characters. The chamber of commerce held its One dozen cases of coffee valued at first business men's luncheon at the An-One dozen cases of coffee valued at led to the arrests. The men claimed that they had purchased it from the American grocery company, the police say. However, the proprietors of the latter establishment deny having sold the coffee to the Ilitzkys, according to

The coffee in question, the total value Do you know that croup can be pre-ented? Give Chamberlain's Cough brand which, it is claimed, had never missioners' court examined upon its Remedy as soon as the child becomes been placed on the market in El Paso hoarse or even after the croupy cough; and had a peculiar label pasted on each appears and it will prevent the attack. package.

Sold stable's warehouse, packages of coffee corresponding to these, were taken.

Herald Office Building

NO Coal Bills NO Water Bills NO Light Bills NO Janitor to Pay NO Stairs to Climb

Rent a well lighted, well heated, central located office in the New Herald Building, one block from Postoffice. Call at office number 214 Herald Building and be shown over the few vacant offices left. Prices to suit the times.

OUR RAW LINSEED OIL AND TURPENTINE

Are so pure that they can be used for medicinal purposes. Our Carter Brand of White Lead is also absolutely pure.

TUTTLE PAINT @ GLASS CO.

Our stock Saddles, Harness, Rifles, Shotguns, Ammunition and Sporting Goods are all "A1." Call and examine same, or write us. Mail orders given prompt attention.

SHELTON-PAYNE ARMS CO.